

I AM BETTER THAN MY WIFE – (Confessions from Mr. Stupid)

LARUE

GUYS, NO ONE WANTS TO ADMIT “FREELY” THAT THEY’RE an idiot. As a matter of fact, we struggle to try to prove otherwise, constantly!

I’m here to tell you most of my good friends are IDIOTS when it comes to understanding the heart of a woman, and how to love them like Christ, including me!

I’ve spent hundreds of hours hanging with guys over the years. Believe me, I know what motivates the heart of a man. I’ve walked several paths with my bro’s through some pretty rugged terrain.

It’s what motivates my heart. I’m not trying to prove my “value” by doing so, it’s just what comes out of my heart.

I’ve got some life changing news for you! I’ve found some things “hidden in plain sight”!

I’ve shared these “truths” with tons of guys through the years and every one of them has said similar things like, “Why hasn’t anyone ever shared this with me before, I’ve never heard this before” and “this info could have saved my marriage”!

It all starts here, “What is the role of my wife in my life”?

There are literally thousands of books on marriage. Most of these books are amazing. But it seems that most of them skirt the real issue.

I avoided THE issue “like the plague” myself for many years.

If you’d like to have the most passionate, committed, radical marriage you’ve ever seen, stay tuned.

Ready?

How many times has your wife been wrong as it relates to “matters of the heart”?

If you're like most guys and you are, you'll probably say something close to ZERO!

Now, let me ask you this, "how many times have YOU been wrong as it relates to "matters of the heart", maybe a million?

So, if this is true AND we know it is, then why haven't we allowed their heart to be "front and center" of our marriage?

Maybe pride? Now there's the understatement of the universe!

It seems like we're all standing at a 5 ALARM fire and everyone seems to be "sleeping".

Please OPEN your hearts over the next few pages. What I'm going to share with you will NOT ONLY save your marriage but it will give you a chance to have the marriage you've only dreamed of. I'm dead serious about this, AND, I will even guarantee it!

What is the root meaning of the word "Helpmate"?

This is where it all gets crazy, crazy good!

"The Revealer of the Enemy". That's what your Helpmate is.

She reveals and reveals and reveals and...you get the point.

When I saw this, it literally stopped me in my tracks.

So, the very one who is usually more sensitive, more intuitive, more discerning, more loving, usually smarter is the very one who can reveal what the "enemy" of our relationship is?

Guys, this is earth shaking, life changing stuff!

My life would have been radically different, 1000% better, if I had lived this truth over the years.

The "Revealer" works in every aspect of your life. At home, at work, everywhere!

The Lord whispered to my heart a few years ago saying, "Paul, I want you to "seek out" Carolynne's heart the rest of your life". His words rocked me and humbled me. It's actually "how" He pursues her every single day. He was inviting me in to territory that I had not known. To do the same thing that He does, to AGREE with how He does it, and to enjoy the fruit of it. I am now and I'm NEVER going back.

The only thing that keeps me from doing this is ME...my pride. What a waste of time. What a waste of HIS time.

Here we go:

Take a look at this scripture which lays the groundwork for your NEW life.

My paraphrased version of 1st Peter 3:7 says, “Husbands, live in an understanding way with your wives, giving honor to them as One that’s built to be covered, as co-equals in the body, SO THAT your (the Man) prayers may not be hindered”.

Do you see it?

To the extent that I live in an UNDERSTANDING way with my wife is in direct relation to HOW God answers MY prayers. Are you kidding me?

So, I’m the blockade. How many times have you felt frustrated by the Lord NOT answering your prayers! He is inviting us into a new reality.

It’s true my friend and this is where we start to turn your marriage into Gold!
